Call to Worship/Centering

Holy Spirit, move, swirl, and dance among us. Remind us that you are always present: encouraging, luring, and inspiring us to be the loving people you created us to be. Stir us to walk humbly, embrace love, and do justice in our fragmented world.

As we come to worship on this Pentecost Sunday, Holy Spirit, let us breathe deeply – inhaling the good gifts of your Spirit and exhaling the things we need to release.

Let us breathe in strength. (Pause for breath...)

And, let us exhale our exhaustion. (Pause for breath...)

Let us breathe in freedom. (Pause for breath...)

And, let us exhale all that holds us back. (Pause for breath...)

Let us breathe in a new sense of direction. (Pause for breath...)

And, let us exhale the paths we no longer want to use. (Pause for breath...)

Let us breathe in hope. (Pause for breath...)

And, let us exhale self-doubt. (Pause for breath...)

Let us breathe in unconditional love. (Pause for breath...)

And, let us exhale distrust and hate. (Pause for breath...)

Holy Spirit, be loosed into this space and let us feel the mighty rush of your presence as we gather as your people. Amen.

Communion Prayer/Words of Institution/Jesus Prayer

As we prepare to be fed, nourished, and sent, let us join in the prayer that Jesus taught, interpreted by the Benedictine Women of Madison or with words that live in our hearts.

Holy One, our only home, blessed be your name, may your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven. Feed us today, and forgive us, as we forgive each other. Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil. For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours now and forever. Amen

Sharing of Communion

No matter where you are on life's journey, all are welcome. If you are worshipping online, please use whatever you have available to partake of communion from wherever you are watching.
